The offer is considered as accepted by TME the moment an e-mail confirming shipment is sent to the address provided by the customer during the account registration process at www.tme.eu or while placing the order, or at the time of concluding the individual contract of sale.

Orders placed via the Internet

The account on the website: www.tme.eu is a personal client administration panel available to the customer upon registration and logging in to the website, to which the customer's username and password are assigned and in which the customer's data and activities on the website are gathered. The client is obliged to keep confidential and not reveal to any third parties the username and password to their account. The account can be deleted at the request of the customer sent to TME. The account is deleted immediately, not later than 7 days from the receipt of the request, and where the customer has orders that are being processed, not later than 7 days from the date of completion of the last of the orders.

TME is entitled to deprive the customer of the right to use of the account in the service and/or to place orders using the online sales system, if the manner in which the customer uses the account or system violates legal regulations, principles of social interaction, or the rules of using the account or placing orders without registration defined in the "Help" tab.

The customer may place an order without registering an account. In that case, after adding the products to the cart, the customer needs to choose the option of purchase without registration and declare whether they are making that purchase as a consumer or a business (a company) by selecting the appropriate box. Further details regarding the registration procedure and managing the account in the service as well as placing orders and ordering without registration can be found in the "Help" and "How to buy - Orders" tabs. After placing an order, an order confirmation e-mail will be sent to the e-mail address provided by the customer during account registration or in the order form. On the day the products are transferred to the carrier, the customer will also receive an e-mail. The customer can verify the order via their account or, if they placed an order without registration, via the "order status" link attached to the order confirmation e-mail. To verify the order status without registration, the customer needs to enter the e-mail address provided by them in the registration form and the order number specified in the order confirmation. During the telephone call, we shall ask the customer to provide the following information: name and surname, address, place of residence, phone number, customer number, if already assigned, as well as name of the chosen product, order quantity, delivery address, and preferred transport method. Orders placed by e-mail

Along with your order, you are required to provide the following information: name, address, phone number, customer number, if already assigned, and the name of the selected item, ordered quantity, delivery address, and selected transport method. After placing the order, a confirmation email shall be sent to the same address used for submitting the order, unless a different e-mail address was specified for this purpose in the order. On the day of transfer of the order to the carrier for shipment, the customer shall be informed via e-mail.

Orders placed by post

Orders can be sent to the headquarters of TME in Łódź. Detailed information on the ordering process, including contact details for different ways of placing an order can be found in the How to buy – Orders tab.

DELIVERY OF GOODS

4.a. TME offers delivery of goods to the countries indicated in the „How to buy” tab. Delivery of goods to countries outside the group is only possible subject to individual arrangements with TME. TME does not deliver goods to territories and people who under Polish or international law are subject to embargo or restrictions on trade and sales of goods. If in doubt, please contact the Sales Department at TME. Some products are only available for purchase in selected countries. If a product is unavailable in a given country, it cannot be added to the cart. The consumer covers shipping costs, unless otherwise agreed in a separate agreement between the consumer and TME.

4.b. The shipping cost depends on the weight of the package, its size and country of destination, as well as the choice of carrier/freight forwarder.

4.c. Shipping costs are included in the order and invoiced with the first shipment containing the goods of a given order. Inclusion, at the request of the consumer, of an additionally ordered product to a second or third shipment containing a given order, means that the shipment containing the additionally ordered products shall be treated as a new order, and thus shipping costs shall be charged. Where the weight of a parcel does not fall within the lump weight for a given country (or such a lump weight is not defined), the shipping cost is individually agreed on with the TME Sales Department.

4.d. Delivery date is indicated in accordance with the ISO 8601 norm in the YYYY-MM-DD (year, month, day) format. The delivery time for a product includes the order processing time and transportation time by the carrier/freight forwarder. The order processing time is an indicative time counted from the moment of receipt of the order for processing until the subject of the order is issued to the carrier/freight forwarder. The order processing time is subject to the availability of a given product, while the transport time depends on the choice of carrier/freight forwarder. Details regarding delivery times are available in the „How to buy – Delivery time tab.

4.e. A table of costs and delivery times can be found on the website: www.tme.eu in the „How to buy” tab.

4.f. When placing the order, the consumer chooses a carrier from among the options offered by TME. Delivery by a carrier different than that offered by TME is only possible under individual agreements between TME and the consumer. Where a consumer chooses the Standard shipment method, TME makes the choice of the carrier from several entities that provide such services. The consumer agrees that the carrier may leave the package at the delivery address without the addressee having to confirm its receipt, in accordance with the carrier’s delivery policy.

4.g. Receipt of goods at the TME headquarters located at 41 Ustronna street is impossible.

Information on the warranty period for particular goods can be found in the products' description at www.tme.eu. Detailed terms of the warranty are specified in the warranty document. Detailed warranty conditions are specified in the warranty document or on the website of the product manufacturer.

7.e. The warranty for the goods sold does not exclude, limit or suspend consumer's rights in the case of non-compliance of the goods with the contract arising from the commonly applicable regulations, in particular the Act of 30 May 2014 on consumer rights.

RIGHT TO WITHDRAW FROM THE CONTRACT

A Consumer who entered into a sales contract with TME remotely (i.e. via a website, e-mail, telephone) has the right to withdraw from that contract within 14 days, without stating the reason for their withdrawal. In the case of a contract concluded during a non-scheduled visit to the consumer's place of residence or ordinary stay or during a trip, the deadline for withdrawal is within 30 days.

The deadline for withdrawal from the contract lapses 14 days counted from the following date:

- a) the date on which the Consumer or a third party designated by them other than the carrier came into possession of the goods,
- b) in the case of a contract including an obligation to transfer the ownership of multiple goods that are delivered separately, in batches or in parts – the date on which the customer or a third party designated by them other than the carrier came into possession of the last item, batch or part of the goods.

To exercise the right to withdraw from the contract, the consumer must inform Transfer Multisort Elektronik Ltd, no. 41 Ustronna 41, 93-350 Łódź, tel. 42 645-55-65, fax 42 645-55-00, e-mail: reklamacje@tme.pl of their decision to withdraw from this agreement through an unequivocal declaration (for example; a letter sent by mail or e-mail).

The customer may use the model withdrawal form set out below and also available for download here. However, it is not mandatory.

To maintain the withdrawal deadline, it is enough for the consumer to send information regarding exercise of the consumer right to withdraw from the agreement before the expiry of the withdrawal deadline.

Consequences of withdrawal from the agreement

In the case of withdrawal from the contract, TME returns to the customer all the payments received from them, including delivery costs (except for any additional costs resulting from the delivery method selected by the customer other than TME's cheapest standard delivery method), without undue delay but in any case not later than within 14 days of the day on which TME was notified about the decision of the customer on their exercise of their right to withdraw from the contract. TME will return the payment using the same payment methods that were used by the consumer in the original transaction, unless the consumer has consented expressly to other solution; in any case the consumer will not bear any costs related to the payment return. TME may withhold the return of payment until TME receives the goods or the proof that the goods have been sent back, whichever is earliest.

Please, return the item to Transfer Multisort Elektronik Sp. z o.o. ul. Ustronna 41, 93-350 Łódź, immediately, and in any way not later than 14 days from the date on which the consumer notified TME about their withdrawal from the contract. The deadline is deemed as met if the consumer sends back the item before the lapse of the 14-day period. The consumer will have to bear the direct costs of returning the goods. If due to its nature the item may not be returned as a standard postal delivery, then those costs in the case of sales in the territory of Poland are estimated to be not more than ca. PLN 100.

Having received the returned goods, TME will issue a correcting invoice, which is a confirmation that the parties have agreed to lower the tax base. The issue date of the correcting invoice is deemed to be the date on which the parties agreed to lower the tax base.

The consumer is liable only for the reduction in the value of the goods resulting from using the goods in a manner that is different than necessary to check the nature, characteristics and operation of the item.

Absence of the rights to withdraw from the agreement and circumstances under which the consumer loses the rights of withdrawal

The consumer is not entitled to withdraw from a distance agreement in relation to agreements:

- 2) in which the price or remuneration depends on fluctuations in the financial market, on which the entrepreneur has no control, and which may occur prior to the expiry of the deadline for withdrawal from the agreement;
- 3) where the contract applies to non-prefabricated goods, manufactured according to the consumer's specifications or intended to satisfy their individualised needs;
- 4) where the contract applies to perishable goods or goods with a short shelf life;
